William A. Deitch, Admitted to National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys

Denver, October 16, 2005—The Executive Director of The National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, Richard L. Randall announces the admittance of William A. Deitch of Wheaton, Illinois as a new member of this unique organization.

Deitch, a native of Illinois, received his Bachelors degree with highest distinction from the University of Illinois at Champaign/Urbana. He then went on to earn his J.D. from DePaul University where he won the A.B.A./DePaul client counseling competition. He is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association section on Trust and Estates, the DuPage Bar Association section on Estate Planning, the Illinois/Wisconsin Estate Planning Forum and the Chicago Bar Association.

“My membership in the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys,” says Deitch, “provides me with over one thousand partners all over the United States. The benefit of such an organization cannot be understated. I can keep up-to-date on the ever-developing body of law on the cutting edge of my field while devoting maximum time to my clients to better serve their interests and meet their planning goals. This not only provides me with an advantage over other attorneys, but more importantly, it provides my clients with the ultimate advantage.”

“Through our internet website and our regularly scheduled continuing education seminars,” states Richard Randall executive director, “Mr. Deitch and his Network colleagues are able to stay on the leading edge of the latest developments in estate and tax law, learn planning techniques and share their estate planning experience for the benefit of all their clients.”

Mr. Deitch’s office is located at 2100 Manchester Road, Suite 900, Wheaton, Illinois 60187. He can be reached at (630) 871-8778, and is able to provide presentations on the basic facts and common misconceptions in such areas as estate planning, wills and probate for nonprofit organizations, community and professional groups.
